New Restaurants in USA & East Asia Matteo Vercelloni, 1998 Third in the series International Architecture Interiors this book focuses on restaurant design offering a broad and stimulating array of thirty six designs realized over the last decade in the United States Japan and Malaysia The book offers a comparative overview of new western architecture particularly of the kind emerging in the U S where unlike in Europe restaurant design involves not just the interiors but the building s entire setting sometimes allowing total freedom to experiment new languages and imaginative layout solutions In this book we delve deeper into the new offering of U S interior design moving from the private to the public sector a field in which restaurants have become of major interest and which leaves the architect a free rein for innovative and imaginative design solutions for hospitality and comfort Most of the projects are supplied with project drawings a technical breakdown listing materials and special solutions adopted complemented with a closing section of biographical data on the architects cited
