But Is It Art? Cynthia A. Freeland, 2002-03 From Andy Warhol's Brillo boxes to provocative dung splattered madonnas in today's art world many strange even shocking things are put on display This often leads exasperated viewers to exclaim is this really art In this invaluable primer on aesthetics Freeland explains why innovation and controversy are so highly valued in art weaving together philosophy and art theory with many engrossing examples Writing clearly and perceptively she explores the cultural meanings of art in different contexts and highlights the continuities of tradition that stretch from modern often sensational works back to the ancient halls of the Parthenon to the medieval cathedral of Chartres and to African nkisi nkondi fetish statues She explores the difficulties of interpretation examines recent scientific research into the ways the brain perceives art and looks to the still emerging worlds of art on the web video art art museum CD ROMS and much more She also guides us through the various theorists of art from Aristotle and Kant to Baudrillard Throughout this nuanced account of theories artists and works Freeland provides us with a rich understanding of how cultural significance is captured in a physical medium and why challenging our perceptions is and always has been central to the whole endeavor It is instructive to recall that Henri Matisse himself was originally derided as a wild beast To horrified critics his bold colors and distorted forms were outrageous A century later what was once shocking is now considered beautiful And that writes Freeland is art favor of public sites and community participation Selected Poems Rudyard Kipling, 2006-06-29 Rudyard Kipling 1865-1936 is often regarded as the unofficial Laureate of the British Empire Yet his writing reveals a ferociously independent figure at times violently opposed to the dominant political and literary tendencies of his age Arranged in chronological order this diverse selection of his poetry shows the development of Kipling's talent his deepening maturity and the growing sombreness of his poetic vision Ranging from early exhilarating celebrations of British expansion overseas including Mandalay and Gunga Din to the dignified and inspirational If and the later deeply moving Epitaphs of the War inspired by the death of Kipling's only son it clearly illustrates the scope and originality of his work It also offers a compelling insight into the Empire both at its peak and during its decline in the early years of the twentieth century The 12-Hour Art Expert Noah Charney, 2022-10-30 Brimming with examples from across the artistic spectrum this is the perfect primer to hook future art enthusiasts Publishers Weekly Interested in art but feel under informed Curious but afraid you might not get it Already a fan and wishing to immerse yourself in a fun engaging informative and informed read that will refresh and top up your Art History 101 and Introduction to Art courses from college The 12 Hour Art Expert Everything You Need to Know about Art in a Dozen Masterpieces avoids the common approach of throwing hundreds of images at a reader and expecting them to learn from and memorize them all Instead the book will guide its readers through a brief series of masterpieces of Western art from cave paintings to sharks in formaldehyde This book twelve chapters teach readers about art the art trade and art history in a thorough though concise fashion Each chapter is linked to one notable masterpiece with references to others giving readers a fixed digestible number of objects that they will get to know in depth and which they can use as a lens to understand the thousands of other related objects that they might encounter in the future Museums can be daunting and art presents a strange new language one that certainly intrigues but is often intimidating and foreign This book written by one of the world's best known art historians uses entertaining stories to break down intimidating barriers and invites readers of all ages for a one stop immersion into art But is it Art? Étienne J.
