But Why Shoot The Magistrate:

The Magistrate's Own Case Pallo Rosenkrantz, 1908 But Why Shoot the Magistrate? Patricia Houck Sprinkle, 1998 When a popular youth pastor is accused of a grisly crime MacLaren Yarbrough won't rest until she finds the truth Her gut instinct tells her Luke Blessed is innocent Still how could the dream he had on the night a young woman was murdered depict the crime with such chilling accuracy As MacLaren tracks down clues from all corners of Hopewell GA four like suspects emerge But the police aren't buying her theories Even her husband local magistrate Joe Riddley resists her amateur sleuthing This case he feels is too dangerous Just how dangerous both of them are about to discover The assailant strikes again leaving Joe comatose from a gunshot wound to the head And suddenly a new question stares MacLaren in the face It's the most perplexing question of all and the most personal Why shoot the magistrate Forgotten Heroes William Wilbanks, 1996 Barnaby Rudge, pt. II. Master Humphrey's clock and other stories Charles Dickens, 1900

An Introduction to the Duties of Magistrates and Justices of the Peace Peter Benson Maxwell, 1871 Drum Mountain Tales and Plays Muriel Caldwell Pilley, 2024-01-10 Take a peek behind the veil of time and see what life was like in early twentieth century China Muriel Caldwell Pilley whose own life is told in Daughter of Drum Mountain wrote the legends and stories of that land and the work of her parents and other missionaries Muriel's daughter Gail has assembled some of these stories as well as a few of Muriel's original plays into a collection that will both delight and inspire seekers of adventure and faith The cover of the book was designed by Michael Harris Gail's older son The figure is a sketch of a statue outside the bookstore on Kuliang the community on Drum Mountain above Fuzhou where Muriel and her family spent the hot months of South China summer The Judge, 1924 Works, ed. by G.K. The tithe proctor. The emigrants of Ahadarra. Traits and stories of the Irish peasantry William Carleton, 1882 The Motor World, 1904 Magistrates, Police, and People Donald Fyson, 2006-12-15 The role and function of criminal justice in a conquered colony is always problematic and the case of Quebec is no exception Many historians have suggested that between the Conquest and the Rebellions 1760s 1830s Quebec's Canadian inhabitants both boycotted and were excluded from the British criminal justice system Magistrates Police and People challenges this simplistic view of the relationship between criminal law and Quebec society offering instead a fresh view of a complex accord Based on extensive research in judicial and official sources Donald Fyson offers the first comprehensive study of the everyday workings of criminal justice in Quebec and Lower Canada Focussing on the justices of the peace and their police Fyson examines both the criminal justice system itself and the system in operation as experienced by those who participated in it Fyson contends that although the system was fundamentally biased its flexibility provided a source of power for ordinary citizens At the same time everyday criminal justice offered the colonial state and colonial elites a powerful though often faulty means of imposing their will on Quebec society This fascinating and controversial study will challenge many received historical interpretations providing new insight into the criminal justice system of early Quebec
