Buying Back The Land Organisational Struggle And The Aboriginal Land Fund Commission:

Buying back the land Ian Charles Palmer, 1988 Political legal and bureaucratic problems of implementation of land purchases from 1960s to present day contradictions of land rights demands in Capitalist Australia major phases of Aboriginal Land Fund Commission s life Department of Aboriginal Affairs relations with A L F C Australian Critical Decisions Ann Genovese, 2018-02-02 The 1980s was a time of significant social political and cultural change In Australia law was pivotal to these changes The two High Court cases that this book explores Koowarta v Bjelke Petersen in 1982 and the Tasmanian Dams case in 1983 are famous legally as they marked a decisive reckoning by the Court with both international law and federal constitutionalism Yet these cases also offer a significant marker of Australia in the 1980s a shift to a different form of political engagement nationally and internationally on complex questions about race and the environment This book brings these cases together for the first time It does so to explore not only the legal legacy and relationship between Koowarta and Tasmanian Dams but also to reflect on how Australians experience their law in time and place and why those experiences might require more than the usual legal records The authors include significant figures in Australian public life some of whom were key participants in the cases as well as established and respected scholars in law history Indigenous and environmental studies The book offers a combination of personal recollections of the cases the drama of how they were brought before the courts and decided as well as a consideration of the cases ongoing significance in Australian life This book was previously published as two special issues in the Griffith Law Review Aratjara , 2022-07-04 ARATJARA is the first collection of essays on Australian Aboriginal culture published and edited from Germany A group of internationally renowned scholars and specialists in their fields have contributed original essays on political and cultural aspects of Aboriginal life today These various essays treat the struggle of Aboriginal peoples for land rights their music and their achievements in theatre in literature and in the creation of Aboriginal literary discourses as well as Aboriginal film and television productions and the representation of Australia s indigenous peoples in the white media Among Aboriginal writers who have contributed to ARATJARA are the politician Neville T Bonner the dramatist Bob Maza the story teller David Mowaljarlai and the poet Lionel Fogarty who has been called the most authentic Aboriginal voice among writers using English as their medium of creative expression The volume is dedicated to Oodgeroo formerly Kath Walker 1920 1993 one of the foremost Aboriginal political and cultural personalities and also contains a number of poems by Lionel Fogarty Buying Back the Land Ian Palmer, 1988-12 Analyzes administrative struggle and resistance from the late 1960s through to the present day in land purchases for Aboriginal communities Warren Mundine in Black + White Warren Mundine, 2018-07-28 One of this country s most important writers on the vexed and sensitive issues of black and white Australia politics and race Caroline Overington Warren s a fighter He looked at Lionel Rose our greatest champion through the eyes of a boy and learnt the greatest lesson of our lives stay on your feet Stan Grant One of eleven children in a poor Catholic family Nyunggai Warren

Mundine AO has been on a remarkable journey that could have taken a very different turn for a young boy growing up as second class citizen in the segregated Australia of the 1950s From his early life in country NSW with only one pair of shoes and a single bed shared with three of his brothers to today where he frequents the highest echelons of power and business In Black White is a stirring story of an Indigenous life woven into the very fabric of Australia and its politics In this honest and unflinching memoir Mundine talks about his personal hardships from growing up in poverty and facing racism to his personal battle with depression and suicide One of the most controversial personalities in today s political spectrum Mundine also includes surprising insights into key political leaders he has worked with including Malcolm Turnbull John Howard Kevin Rudd Julia Gillard Tony Abbott Peta Credlin Mark Latham Jenny Macklin and Sam Dastyari Included in this updated edition are two new chapters in which Mundine shares his passion for work and empowering those trapped in the welfare cycle Drawing from personal experience Mundine believes poverty is not just about money but about deprivation of basic needs like employment lack of purpose and aspiration and lack of autonomy and independence

Rethinking Resource Management Richard Howitt,2002-01-31 This book offers students and practitioners a sophisticated and convincing framework for rethinking the usual approaches to resource management It uses case studies to argue that professional resource managers do not take responsibility for the social and environmental consequences of their decisions on the often vulnerable indigenous communities they affect It also discusses the invisibility of indigenous people values and knowledge within traditional resource management It offers a new approach to social impact assessment methods which are more participatory and empowering The book employs a range of case studies from Australia North America and Norway

White Politics and Black Australians Scott Bennett,2020-09-02 Today whichever party is in power Aboriginal issues are very much part of the national agenda No account of the nature of Australian politics or discussion of the future of Australian society can be complete without consideration of the Aboriginal interest Citizens whatever their political preferences are learning that the Aboriginal demand for a full role in society has a profound impact on public life In White Politics and Black Australians Scott Bennett coolly and dispassionately describes how the aspirations of Aboriginal Australians are expressed through a political system designed first and foremost for the white majority Mabo Wik Native Title Stolen Generation these are just some of the issues discussed here In a field so often characterised by rhetoric rather than analysis here is an account which acknowledges the day to day reality of political contest

The Australian People James Jupp,2001-10 Australia is one of the most ethnically diverse societies in the world today From its ancient indigenous origins to British colonisation followed by waves of European then international migration in the twentieth century the island continent is home to people from all over the globe Each new wave of settlers has had a profound impact on Australian society and culture The Australian People documents the dramatic history of Australian settlement and describes the rich ethnic and cultural inheritance of the nation through the contributions of its people It is one of the largest reference works of its kind with approximately 250 expert contributors and almost one million words Illustrated in colour and black and white the book is both a comprehensive encyclopedia and a survey of the controversial debates about citizenship and multiculturalism now that Australia has attained the centenary of its federation Proceedings of the ... Conference New Zealand Geographical Society. Conference, New Zealand Geographical Society, 2001 The Power of Knowledge, the Resonance of Tradition Luke Taylor, 2005 This book offers a ground breaking critique of the concept of tradition as it has been applied in the Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander context The authors offer a refreshing new style of analysis In writing that is rich in detail strong in analysis and informed by their research experience they argue for a deeper appreciation of the creativity inherent Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander social life and the way that knowledge is constructed and deployed in complex intercultural contexts in contemporary Australia Each chapter draws on detailed local inter cultural information which include Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander land and sea ownership and management native title processes service delivery arrangements for health and outstation management and representations in art song and broadcasting In each arena there are multiple engagements with broad global processes The advent of Native Title legislation has led Indigenous communities across the country being required to demonstrate their traditional connections to country For many their experiences of these processes are increasingly at odds with the complex inter cultural realities of their lives They feel the constraining effect of outmoded frameworks of tradition in legislation and policy where social and cultural innovation are characterised as inauthentic The book draws together key scholars in Aboriginal and Torres Strait islander social research The authors provide productive ways of characterising Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander social life and develop a multi disciplinary theoretical critique to the concept of tradition Bulletin of the Public Affairs Information Service Public Affairs Information Service, 1989

Indigenous Peoples' Rights in Australia, Canada, & New Zealand Paul Havemann, 1999 Indigenous Peoples Rights in Australia Canada and New Zealand aims to provide a contemporary and contextual survey and analysis of the legal and political interaction between the British settler states of Australia Canada and New Zealand and the indigenous First Nation peoples they dispossessed Proceedings New Zealand Geographical Society.
