Smith Pireeni Sundaralingam Hector Tobar Jessica I Valles Wendy A Vogt John Weeks The Routledge History of Modern Latin American Migration Andreas E. Feldmann, Xochitl Bada, Jorge Durand, Stephanie Schütze, 2022-10-26 The Routledge History of Modern Latin American Migration offers a systematic account of population movements to and from the region over the last 150 years spanning from the massive transoceanic migration of the 1870s to contemporary intraregional and transnational movements. The volume introduces the migratory trajectories of Latin American populations as a complex web of transnational movements linking origin, transit, and receiving countries. It showcases the historical mobility dynamics of different national groups including Arab, Asian, African, European, and indigenous migration and their divergent international trajectories within existing migration systems in the Western Hemisphere including South America, the Caribbean, and Mesoamerica. The contributors explore some of the main causes for migration including wars, economic dislocation, social immobility, environmental degradation, repression, and violence. Multiple case studies address critical contemporary topics such as the Venezuelan exodus, Central American migrant caravans, environmental migration, indigenous and gender migration, migrant religiosity, transit and return migration, urban labor markets, internal displacement, the nexus between organized crime and forced migration, the role of social media and new communication technologies, and the effects of the COVID-19 pandemic on movement. These essays provide a comprehensive map of the historical evolution of migration in Latin America and contribute to define future challenges in migration studies in the region. This book will be of interest to scholars of Latin American and Migration Studies in the disciplines of history, sociology, political science, anthropology, and geography.

Amplifying the Curriculum Aída Walqui, George C. Bunch, Peggy Mueller, 2025 Expanded and revised to include four entirely new chapters, this thoroughly updated edition presents a model for how educators can design high-quality, challenging, and supportive learning opportunities for multilingual learners. Starting with the premise that conceptual, analytic, and language practices develop simultaneously as students engage in disciplinary learning, the authors argue for instruction that amplifies rather than simplifies expectations, concepts, texts, and learning tasks. They offer clear guidance for designing well-supported lessons with examples that demonstrate the approach in elementary and secondary classrooms across various subject areas: math, science, language arts, and social studies, and contexts including newcomer classrooms and a new chapter written in Spanish on instruction in students' home languages. This popular resource guides teachers through the coherent design of tasks, lessons, and units that invite all students to engage in productive, meaningful dialogic and intellectually engaging activity. The book concludes with a discussion of where teachers might begin and how teacher educators, professional development providers, and educational leaders can support them in these efforts. Book Features: Provides discipline-specific examples that are fully unpacked to guide teachers in creating ambitious and supportive learning tasks, lessons, and units of study. Supports teachers in their own instructional design by providing guiding tenets, a framework for designing lessons, and multiple examples in different subject areas. Offers a compelling argument supported with examples and guidelines that highlights the centrality of interactions in the development of student academic autonomy Provides practical guidance grounded in sociocultural ecological theory applied linguistics and theories about effective learning of disciplinary practices Includes real life lessons that have been successfully implemented in classrooms with multilingual learners at all levels of language proficiency The second edition of this fantastic resource for teachers of ELL classified students and other multilingual learners extends the authors original framework of effective ways to amplify highly engaging academic instruction across grade levels content areas and home languages Wayne E Wright associate dean for research graduate programs and faculty development Purdue University College of Education Berkeley La Raza Law Journal ,2008 The Hispanic American Historical Review James Alexander Robertson,2006 Includes Bibliographical section The United States and the 1930s Anne Sharp Wells,British Library,2000 Annals of Wyoming ,2017
