Decision and Dissent Carl Solberg, 1995 The author served in the Pacific in 1944 as an air combat intelligence officer on Admiral William F Halsey's flagship New Jersey as three Japanese fleets converged on the Philippines for one of the largest naval battles of WWII He recalls the battles and events leading up to Halsey's fateful decision to send Task Force 34 north and traces the development of air combat intelligence units in the US Navy Includes bandw photos Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR

The Battle for Leyte, 1944 Milan Vego, 2013-03-11 One of the largest and most complex military efforts ever undertaken the Leyte Operation was the Allies first and most important major combined operation to liberate the Philippine archipelago The stakes were high a successful landing at Leyte was critical to a subsequent assault on Luzon and total control of the Philippines If Japan lost the Philippines its supply of oil and other strategic raw materials would be cut off and its Navy doomed to an inglorious end In this comprehensive study one of the world's leading authorities on the subject addresses all aspects of the two month long ground sea and air invasion and presents a complete evaluation of theater wide command organization intelligence and logistics Drawing on a wealth of Allied and Japanese primary documents and countless secondary sources Milan Vego describes and analyzes the operational planning and preparation as well as the execution of actions on both sides Focusing on the operational versus tactical aspects of the struggle he critically assesses the major decisions made by the senior commanders His access to the Allied Magic radio intercepts allows him to shed light on what Allied and Japanese commanders knew and did not know about each other Unlike other books on the subject Vego draws conclusions and provides operational lessons learned based on his conclusions A large number of maps figures and tables enhance the text

World War II at Sea Craig L. Symonds, 2018 Craig L Symonds World War II at Sea offers a definitive naval history of the Second World War presenting the chronology of the naval war from The London Conference of 1930 to the surrender in Tokyo Bay in 1945 on a global scale for the first time

Nimitz at War Craig L. Symonds, 2022 From one of our most distinguished naval historians the first wartime biography in a half century of the man who guided America to victory in the Pacific in World War Two The most cataclysmic and consequential war in history produced more than its share of fascinating characters and great leaders Some have hardened into legend others fallen below the radar Somewhere in between sits Chester W Nimitz Commander in Chief of both the Pacific Fleet and the Pacific Ocean Area from 1941 to 1945 Nimitz demanded and received less attention than his Army counterpart Douglas MacArthur whose self promotion was prodigious He seemed less colorful than some of his subordinates such as Admiral Bill Bull Halsey and General Holland Howlin Mad Smith Yet Nimitz's was the guiding hand of Allied forces in the Pacific War and the central figure in the victory against Japan Craig L Symonds's full length portrait of Nimitz from the precarious early months following Pearl Harbor when Nimitz assumed command of the Pacific Fleet to the surrender ceremony in Tokyo Bay is the first in more than fifty years Using Nimitz's headquarters the eye of the hurricane as the vantage point Symonds covers the major campaigns from Guadalcanal to Okinawa He captures Nimitz's calm discipline homespun wisdom and uncanny sense of when to project authority and when to pull back illuminating how this helped him direct one of the largest and most complex campaigns in military history fought against an implacable foe The pressures Nimitz faced were crushing involving tactical and strategic decision making visualizing success while mindful of the welfare of those who served under him soldiers sailors and Marines He had to corral assertive subordinates and keep them focused on the larger objectives and maintain a strong working relationship with his own superiors including the equally formidable Admiral Ernest J King and President Franklin D Roosevelt In addition Nimitz had to deal with the public spectacle of war managing the expectations of a nation both expecting victory and longing for the carnage to end In retrospect it seems impossible to imagine anyone else could have accomplished all this As Symonds absorbing dynamic and authoritative portrait reveals it took leadership asked of and exhibited by few others Behind Nimitz's unflappable professionalism and reservoirs of charm were a resolve and audacity that became evident when most needed King's Navy David Kohnen,2024-11-28 An authoritative account of the rise and fall of American sea power between 1897 and 1947 and the definitive biography of Fleet Admiral Ernest J King Between 1897 and 1945 the US Navy rose to lofty heights with huge manpower a lavish roster of ships and a hard earned reputation for professionalism and potency By 1947 in the wake of the Second World War the Navy although still powerful had been significantly scaled down much of the senior leadership retired and the wartime edge gradually dulled This period from 1897 to 1947 was witnessed and to a large degree driven and determined by two admirals Ernest J King and King's mentor William S Sims These admirals were empowered by two giants of American political and military history Presidents Theodore Roosevelt and Franklin D Roosevelt Through the lives of King Sims and the Roosevelts Naval War College historian David Kohnen has crafted a sweeping history of American sea power from 1897 to 1947 This epic work was made possible through 20 years of research and writing By accessing undiscovered and recently declassified source material along with the full cooperation of the King and Sims families the author has been able to tell new stories and draw fresh conclusions making this volume a must have for scholars of naval history The Pacific War Douglas Ford,2012-02-23 A rich and broad-ranging account of the Asia Pacific campaigns of WWII U.S. Naval Institute Proceedings United States Naval Institute,1995

Network-centric Warfare Norman Friedman,2009 This study is a vital first step in a long overdue reassessment of the dramatic changes in the command and control of naval operations in the twentieth century Dr Friedman's work shows how fundamental communications networks and information systems were to commanders afloat and ashore in fighting the war at sea and that victory went to the possessor of the more comprehensive picture of the maritime battlespace The increasing complexity of the issues that navies faced in their continual struggle to exploit new developments is very thoroughly conveyed in a book whose author consistently demonstrates an understanding of both the theoretical science and the practical technology which underpinned that revolution Publisher's blurb Admiral Marc A. Mitscher and U.S. Naval

Aviation Paolo Enrico Coletta,1997 This biography of Admiral Marc Mitscher follows him from his days at the Naval Academy through his days in two World Wars commanding three naval air stations during WWI and then as Commander Fleet Air for many missions in the east during WWII including the Battle of Midway the Marianas Leyte Gulf Iwo Jima and Okinawa Following WWII he served as Deputy Chief of Naval Operations Air and finally as Commander Atlantic Fleet He was the first aviator to make admiral and fill combat commands
