Deconstructing Apartheid Discourse:

Deconstructing Apartheid Discourse Aletta J. Norval, 1996-04-17 The book thus seeks to trace the construction and contestation of the central axes around which its political frontiers were organized

Discourse David Howarth, 2000-12-16 What do we mean by discourse What are the different conceptions of discourse and methods of discourse analysis in the contemporary social sciences How can this concept help to clarify key theoretical problems and illuminate empirical cases The concept of discourse provokes considerable debate and is understood in a variety of ways in the contemporary social sciences This text presents a comprehensive overview of the different conceptions and methods of discourse analysis while setting out the traditions of thinking in which these conceptions have emerged It surveys structuralist post structuralist and post Marxist theory and the author sets out a fresh approach to discourse analysis drawing principally on the writings of Saussure Levi Strauss Gramsci Althusser Foucault Derrida Laclau and Mouffe He evaluates a number of pertinent criticisms of this approach and explores ways in which discourse analysis can assist our understanding of identity formation hegemony and the relationship between structure and agency This concise and engaging text provides a stimulating introduction to the concept of discourse for students and researchers across the social sciences

Comparative Democratization and Peaceful Change in Single-Party-Dominant Countries M. Rimaneli, 2016-01-26 One of the more positive international trends as of late has been the transformation of several countries from authoritarian based dictatorships and single party systems into multi party democracies characterized by peaceful political transitions In this volume a group of experts are gathered to analyse this progression on a comparative level The scholars examine previously right wing regimes in Brazil Argentina and South Africa former Communist states in Russia Poland Hungary and Czechoslovakia and single party dominant democracies in Italy Japan Mexico and Israel The essays reveal how the dramatic collapse of the USSR functioned as a crucial catalyst in allowing pent up domestic pressures for change to emerge in a less charged international environment In addition the chapters study the historical and current evolution of these countries focusing on their success in developing long term pluralistic structures and gauging whether these recent trends are more overnight fads than long lasting advancements

South African Homelands as Frontiers Steffen Jensen, Olaf Zenker, 2018-02-02 This book explores what happened to the homelands in many ways the ultimate apartheid disgrace after the fall of apartheid The nine chapters contribute to understanding the multiple configurations that currently exist in areas formerly declared homelands or Bantustans Using the concept of frontier zones the homelands emerge as areas in which the future of the South African postcolony is being renegotiated contested and remade with hyper real intensity This is so because the many fault lines left over from apartheid its loose ends so to speak between white and black between different ethnicities between rich and poor or differentiated by gender generation and nationality between traditions and modernities or between wilderness and human habitation are particularly acute and condensed in these so called communal areas Hence the book argues that it is particularly in these settings that the postcolonial promise of liberation and freedom must face its test As such the book offers highly nuanced and richly detailed analyses that go to the heart of the diverse dilemmas of post apartheid South Africa as a whole but simultaneously also provides in condensed form an extended case study on the predicaments of African postcoloniality in general This book was originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Southern African Studies

Bantu Authorities Veronica Ehrenreich-Risner,2022-02-18 In Bantu Authorities Apartheid s System of Race and Ethnicity Veronica Ehrenreich Risner provides the first holistic study of the Bantu Authorities BA system that implemented rural apartheid The system extended segregation by including ethnos theory to establish underfunded self governing homelands to curb the expense of native administration yet retain control of the cheap labor upon which white capital depended Based on over sixty interviews with Zulus and former commissioners and archival research Bantu Authorities proves the primary objective of the system was to protect white capital with white racial purity secondary Ehrenreich Risner argues that the system disrupted the Brownlee tradition of guardianship for commissioners and the tradition of reciprocity for ubukhosi Bantu Authorities ends by examining the lingering consequences of rural apartheid and asks what rural Africans have gained with majority rule when they remain bound to BA structures

Discourse Theory and Political Analysis

David R. Howarth,Aletta J. Norval,Yannis Stavrakakis,2000 Drawing inspiration from the works of those such as Jacques Derrida and Michel Foucault the contributors address questions using a common theoretical language and also assess the future directions of discourse theory in the social sciences

Belonging Ashwin Desai,Goolam Vahed,2025-09-23 What does it mean to belong Across oceans and centuries this sweeping narrative shuttles between the corridors of the Colonial Office in London the contested streets of Durban and the changing power dynamics within the British Raj The first boatload of indentured Indians arrived in Natal in 1860 Thousands were to follow In haunting detail the book captures the plight of these labourers as well as the vicious onslaught faced by the merchant class for daring to outpace their colonial rivals At its core are the untold struggles of Indian South Africans as they confront the ever present threat of repatriation Sensitive to shifting political terrains the book weaves together seismic events the independence of India the coming of apartheid and the threat once more of mass expulsions with the texture of everyday life The granting of citizenship in 1961 is accompanied by mass relocations as the Group Areas Act rips communities from their roots Yet out of this despair barren townships on the edges of cities are turned into places of hope In the final chapters the fall of apartheid offers a moment of transcendence Yet it also asks what does it mean at last to belong It is a fascinating story of the global and the local of resistance and collaboration and undefeated optimism This is a book for anyone who has ever sought a place to

Justifying Oppression

Karl Magnusson,2000 States of Emergency Stephen Morton,2013-01-01 States of Emergency examines how violent anticolonial struggles and the legal military and political techniques employed by colonial governments to contain them have been imagined in both literary and legal narratives Through a series of case studies Stephen Morton considers how colonial states of emergency have been defined and represented in the contexts of Ireland India South Africa Algeria Kenya and Israel Palestine concluding with a compelling assessment of the continuities between colonial states of emergency and the war on terror in Iraq Afghanistan and Pakistan Confronting Twenty-first Century Challenges ,2004 Narrating Political Reconciliation Claire Moon,2008 Narrating Political Reconciliation offers a compelling approach to South Africa s Truth and Reconciliation Commission TRC It provides a critical theoretical account of how the TRC s reconciliation story came into being and how it shaped and promoted the norms practices and truisms central to the global reconciliation industry In particular the book examines the material practices and rituals that underpinned the TRC Claire Moon shows how the TRC narrated apartheid history as a sequence of gross violations of human rights perpetrated with a political objective with the effect of transforming competing politico moral claims into an objective legal technical discourse She also shows how the TRC constructed victims and perpetrators as the key subjects of the new political order through ritual practices of confession testimony forgiveness and healing Moon argues that the TRC had multiple and divergent effects Whilst it attempted to secure reconciliation the TRC also generated new social conflicts around questions of justice reparations and apartheid violence it appeared to redeem those who profited from apartheid but did not directly perpetrate atrocities it left unacknowledged the everyday suffering of thousands it left undisturbed structures of material inequality within which political violence was made possible Overall Moon provides a unique approach to reconciliation and transitional justice in post conflict and democratizing states and this book serves as a challenging critical analysis of the field for students and scholars alike History Making and Present Day Politics Hans Erik Stolten,2007 In this collection some of South Africa s most distinguished historians and social scientists present their views on the importance of history and heritage for the transformation of the South African society Although popular use of history helped remove apartheid the study of history lost status during the transition process Some of the reasons for this like the nature of the negotiated revolution social demobilization and individualization are analyzed in this book The combination of scholarly work with an active role in changing society has been a central concern in South African history writing This book warns against the danger of history being caught between reconciliation commercialization and political correctness Some of the articles critically examine the role of historians in ideological debates on gender African agency Afrikaner anti communism early South African socialism and the role of the business world during late apartheid Other contributions explore continuing controversies on the politics of public history in post apartheid South Africa describe the implementation of new policies for history education or investigate the use of applied history in the land restitution process and in the TRC The authors also examine a range of new government and private initiatives in the practical use of history including the establishment of new historical entertainment parks and the conversion of museums and heritage sites For readers interested in nation building processes and identity politics this book provides valuable insight History and African Studies Seminar Series ,1997 The Pitfalls of Liberal Democracy and Late Nationalism

in South Africa Mueni wa Muiu, 2008-11-15 This book compares African and Afrikaner nationalisms to demonstrate that the transition from apartheid to liberal democracy in South Africa was a neo colonial settlement that left the economy and the military security sector under the control of the white minority while increasing wide socioeconomic disparities between rich and poor

"Church Clothes" Or, Land, Mission, and the End of Apartheid in South Africa Thomas Patrick Wilkinson, 2004

Between Cultures Alexander García Düttmann, 2000 Whenever an individual asks to be recognized he asks for confirmation of what he believes himself to be But he also asks for an establishing act that brings about what he will be once he has been recognized Recognition is thus marked by a tension between two incompatible demands

Between Cultures is a philosophical attempt to discuss issues related to multiculturalism in the light of this struggle for recognition Moving effortlessly across various disciplines it refers to the work of Adorno Derrida Freud Hegel Heidegger Rawls Walzer and Wittgenstein to describe a historical and critical politics of recognition

The End of Unheard Narratives Bettina Weiss, 2004

The Security-development Nexus Lars Buur, Steffen Jensen, Finn Stepputat, 2007 The link between security and development has been rediscovered after 9 11 by a broad range of scholars Focusing on Southern Africa the Security Development Nexus shows that the much debated linkage is by no means a recent invention Rather the security development linkage has been an important element of the state policies of colonial as well as post colonial regimes during the Cold War and it seems to be prospering in new configurations under the present wave of democratic transitions Contributors focus on a variety of contexts from South Africa Mozambique and Namibia to Zimbabwe and Democratic Congo they explore the nexus and our understanding of security and development through the prism of peace keeping interventions community policing human rights gender land contests squatters nation and state building social movements DDR programmes and the different trajectories democratization has taken in different parts of the region
