Deep Citizenship:

Education for Citizenship Denis Lawton, Jo Cairns, Roy Gardner, 2004-11-15 There is now broad agreement that citizenship should form an important part of the curriculum And that broadly is where the agreement ends yet busy practitioners have to teach citizenship effectively now Education for Citizenship is based on the assumption that theory needs to be related to practice and that there is already a wealth of good practice from which we can learn      Artistic Citizenship David

Elliott, Marissa Silverman, Wayne Bowman, 2016-09-01 This first of its kind compendium unites perspectives from artists scholars arts educators policymakers and activists to investigate the complex system of values surrounding artistic educational endeavors Addressing a range of artistic domains including music dance theater visual arts film and poetry contributors explore and critique the conventions that govern our interactions with these practices Artistic Citizenship focuses on the social responsibilities and functions of amateur and professional artists and examines ethical issues that are conventionally dismissed in discourses on these topics The questions this book addresses include How does the concept of citizenship relate to the arts What sociocultural political environmental and gendered goods can artistic engagements create for people worldwide Do particular artistic endeavors have distinctive potentials for nurturing artistic citizenship What are the most effective strategies in the arts to institute change and or resist local national and world problems What obligations do artists and consumers of art have to facilitate relationships between the arts and citizenship How can artistic activities contribute to the eradication of adverse isms A substantial accompanying website features video clips of activism in action videotaped interviews with scholars and practitioners working in a variety of spaces and places a blog and supplementary resources about existing and emerging initiatives Thoroughly researched and engagingly written Artistic Citizenship is an essential text for artists scholars policymakers educators and students      Real Green Manuel Arias-Maldonado, 2016-03-23

What would a sustainable society look like How could it be achieved By challenging conventional wisdom about the ecological crisis and reframing the traditional values of green politics Real Green Sustainability after the End of Nature offers new answers to the key questions of the environmental debate In this ground breaking and challenging work Manuel Arias Maldonado convincingly argues that since nature has now been transformed into a part of the human environment it can be seen to no longer exist Ecological problems thus become an inevitable and normal feature of our relationship with nature Hence a post natural environmentalism realistic and liberal while remaining green is advocated In this framework sustainability democracy and liberalism become mutually reinforcing elements rather than conflicting ones Only by combining them can a green society be realised      Commonwealth Education Partnerships, 2007, 2006 Commonwealth Education Partnership 2007 is an essential overview of the development of education systems in the Commonwealth focusing on international collaborations and on the partnerships in member countries between government NGOs and the private sector in education Focuses in this edition increasing access and the right to quality education supporting teachers for
