The Technology Coordinator's Handbook Max Frazier, Doug Hearnington, 2024 Technology coordinators and facilitators must be able to navigate the complexities of a school community's technology needs and serve a variety of individuals including students, teachers, and administrators. With its detailed practical approach, The Technology Coordinator's Handbook has established the standard in clarifying the wide variety of tasks and responsibilities faced by those in this critical role. Readers will learn how to be more effective learners and leaders so they can better assist students and teachers in managing technology use and dealing with technology challenges. The book also offers strategies for education leaders to successfully integrate technology into school and district operations. Advances in Human Factors in Training, Education, and Learning Sciences Salman Nazir, Tareq Z. Ahram, Waldemar Karwowski, 2021-06-26 This book addresses the importance of human factors in optimizing the learning and training process. It reports on the latest research and best practices relating to the application of behavioral and cognitive science and new technologies in the design of instructional and training content. It proposes innovative strategies for improving the learning and training experience and outcomes in different contexts including lower and higher education and different industry sectors. A special emphasis is given to digital and distance learning, gamification, and virtual training. Gathering contributions to the AHFE 2021 Conference on Human Factors in Training, Education, and Learning Sciences held virtually on July 25-29, 2021 from USA, this book offers extensive information and a thought-provoking guide for both researchers and practitioners in the field of education and training.

New Trends in Healthcare Interpreting Studies Raquel Lázaro Gutiérrez, Cristina Álvaro Aranda, 2023-07-01 Interpreting studies have exponentially grown over the years, propelled by the realities of multicultural societies which, among other factors, include constant waves of immigration and the subsequent allocation of newly arrived citizens in their host countries, a process entailing public service access and provision. Communicative interactions between users who do not speak the same language as public service providers have been largely studied in different settings belonging to the field: Public Service Translation and Interpreting (PSIT), ranging from police, asylum, legal, educational, or focus of this book, healthcare contexts. This edited book offers a unique and updated insight into the research advances and the state of the art in healthcare interpreting. Contributions cover methodological innovations together with hot topics such as changing roles, gender, specialized contexts, training programs, and ethical codes, to name but a few. Black Belt, 1999-05 The oldest and most respected martial arts title in the industry, this popular monthly magazine addresses the needs of martial artists of all levels by providing them with information about every style of self-defense in the world, including techniques and strategies.
