Doubt, Time and Violence in Philosophical and Cultural Thought

Artur K. Wardega,2012-11-16 As the title of the present publication suggests the ten essays of this book try to approach an inconvenient trauma of global human reality and the uniformity of media and cyberspace in which human lives suffer harm loss of inner identity and of broader meaning Indeed our postmodern and post identity times are characterized by a flux of rapid social changes uncertainty vague and shaking moral values by violence and frightening information with its contradictory truths and genuine ambiguity finally by the violence of unpredictable climate change resulting in various and frequent calamities and devastation of life Doubt and time are the central concern of modern philosophy and remind us that violence is inherent in the human condition and that reflection on it regardless of different cultural sensibilities is ipso facto part of the mainstream of our individual and global concerns These and many other fascinating topics from Western and Chinese history were explored and brought to light by a learned forum of distinguished scholars and experts whose contributions are contained in this publication LGBT People and the UK Cultural Sector John Vincent,2016-05-06 This book examines the complex and conflicting relationships between LGBT people and our cultural and heritage organisations including libraries museums and archives In this unique book established author John Vincent draws together current good practice and also highlights issues which urgently still need to be addressed To set the work of libraries museums and archives in context Vincent traces the development of LGBT rights in the UK He goes on to examine some of the reasons for hostility and hatred against this minority group and critically explores provision that has been made by cultural and heritage organisations He offers examples of good practice not only from the UK but from across the world and draws up an essential charter for future development This compelling practical book should be read by managers and staff in libraries museums and archives around the world looking for guidance on this important issue The Saturday Review of Politics, Literature, Science and Art ,1874 The Canadian Who's who ,2001 Publishers' Circular and General Record of British and Foreign Literature, and Booksellers' Record ,1871 Arts & Humanities Citation Index ,1997 Current British Journals David P.
