Deceived With Kindness:

Deceived with Kindness Angelica Garnett, 1985 The Unspoken Truth Angelica Garnett, 2010-01-14 Real life and fiction meet as Angelica Garnett vividly evokes what it is to grow up in the shadow of artists Her family appear in different guises in the stories but at the centre of each one is Garnett herself She is naive and foolish as Bettina desperately seeking acceptance into the grown ups circle When All the Leaves Were Green My Love shy and cautious but finally disloyal as Agnes Aurore a hesitant uncomfortable Emily The Birthday Party and a contemplative even witty older woman full of appetite and guilt as Helen Friendship Spanning an entire life each story reveals a figure trying to understand her place not only within the polished circle of her family but in an ever changing world Sharply observing a colourful social milieu and the vibrant characters that populate it these are stories about family and friendships yet also curdled relationships and small betrayals A fictional counterpoint to her acclaimed memoir Deceived with Kindness here is a portrait of a woman seeking an understanding and acceptance of her past Charleston Kathryn N. Benzel, 1998 Bloomsbury at Home Pamela Todd, 2001 Fascination with the Bloomsbury set Virginia Woolf Leonard Woolf Vanessa Bell Duncan Grant Lytton Strachey Dora Carrington among others never ceases Bloomsbury at Home is the story of the friendship between a group of witty lively like minded highly talented individuals who came together during the first half of the twentieth century The book is divided by biography and geography into chapters centering on specific people and places for example Garsington the home of Lady Ottoline Morrell and Hogarth House in Richmond home to Virginia and Leonard Woolf and of course no book on the Bloomsbury set would be complete without mention of Vanessa Bell s home at Charleston Illustrated with a wide range of colour and black and white photographs memorabilia everything from menus to postcards portraits and paintings by members of the group Pamela Todd assembles a detailed account of how and where the Bloomsbury group grew up interacted and lived together during the first half of the twentieth century producing some of their finest work as well as evoking the richness of that extraordinary period in English art and literature Parables from Nature Mrs. Alfred Gatty, 1893 Written by Herself: Volume 2 Jill Ker Conway, 1996-09-17 In this powerful new collection the author of two of the most celebrated memoirs in recent years presents the autobiographical writings of 14 of her English speaking predecessors and contemporaries The women who tell their stories in Written By Herself Vol II represent three generations four continents and a range of experience that is equaled only by the diversity with which they transform life into literature Here are England s Vera Brittain commemorating the deaths of the men she loved in the carnage of World War I Emma Mashinini who endured imprisonment and torture as a labor organizer in South Africa Vijaya Lakshmi Pandit the daughter of Indian aristocracy who became an architect of her country s independence and Edith Mirante the wisecracking American whose passion for justice took her to the opium trails of Burma Collected in this stirring volume their voices demonstrate the ways in which women strive for power inclusion and autonomy and never fail to move inspire and instruct us Contributors
