Decent Work in Asia International Labour Office. Director-General,2001 Decent Work in Asia International Labour Office. Director-General,2001 Presents an overview on ILO activities in Asia Pacific and Arab countries in each of the four dimensions of the decent work agenda fundamental principles and rights at work employment social protection and social dialogue Migration and the Labour Market in Asia 2001 Recent Trends and Policies OECD,2002-01-25 This publication presents an analysis of recent trends in migration movements and policies in Asia ILO Programme Implementation 2008-09 International Labour Office,2010 New Social Policy Agendas for Europe and Asia Katherine Marshall,Olivier Butzbach,2003 The East Asia crisis of 1997 98 highlighted the need for new models for social policy A joint project between European and Asian governments brought together over a two year period the experience of social policy experts from Europe and Asia This project was financed by the ASEM Asia Europe Meeting This document looks at a wide range of issues social security reform links between macroeconomics and social policy labour market policies gender relations and cross border migration Inspired by European experience in similar fields and focusing on ideas and knowledge exchange the project worked to develop papers and seminars to produce this book Preparing and accessing decent work amongst rural youth in Cambodia Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations,2019-08-12 The case study explores which skills and training opportunities young people need in order to gain access to decent employment in rural areas The research was undertaken in order to develop recommendations to support the Ministry of Agriculture Forestry and Fisheries MAFF and FAO Cambodia in developing appropriate recommendations to support rural young people especially those of the 15 to 17 age cohort The study highlights the limited decent employment opportunities that currently exist along various agricultural value chains in rural Cambodia Poverty and the structural problems of the agricultural sector are the main barriers for youth in accessing decent rural employment A substantial enhancement of the education system as well as the provision of appropriate training services to ensure successful schoolto work transition is seen as necessary to tackle these challenges A well balanced policy mix reflecting national and local circumstances can encourage employment opportunities and create an environment that enables rural youth Building on previous research on agriculture in Cambodia agricultural transformation requires promotion of agribusiness enterprises support to community managed organizations of farmers promotion of agropreneurs and investments in agricultural and rural development particularly in infrastructure energy water education and health Moreover most youth entering agriculture are self employed and work as smallscale farmers Therefore the provision of skills and training in rural areas should focus on the skills required to be self employed Decent Work in Agriculture in Asia D. P. A. Naidu,A. Navamukundan,2003 Green Growth and Travelism Terry DeLacy,Min Jiang,Geoffrey Lipman,Shaun Vorster,2014-05-09 The green growth paradigm emerged from evolving global strategies that coherently promote a more socially inclusive low carbon resource efficient stable economy with decreasing poverty

Opportunities and challenges associated with the paradigm shift are expected to transform the travel and tourism travelism sector in all respects and on a global scale This involves the transformation of the entire travelism value chain as well as the communities in tourism destinations However there is a lack of systematic reports on wide ranging and complex implications of the green growth paradigm for the travelism sector This book focuses on the twin pillars green growth and travelism as key building blocks in exploring an essential multi decade lifestyle change for planetary and human well being through the lenses of concept policy and practice It provides a conceptual discussion of the implications of the new development trend for key players in the travelism system offers case studies from both developed and developing countries that highlight key issues in the transformation towards the green economy and explores the policy settings and frameworks on both the global and national levels that underpin travelism green growth This book offers tourism industry players academics students policy makers and practitioners a comprehensive discussion of the latest progress in green growth and travelism Informal Economies and Power Anna Danielsson,2018-10-26 The global ubiquity of informal economic activities has turned informality into a key policy question not least in international peace and state building This book explores a core aspect of economic informality its resilience despite comprehensive international anti informality operations Using Kosovo as an illustrative case Danielsson suggests that to understand the resilience of informality two distinct areas of practice need to be studied in conjunction rather than separately The first concerns the professional practices enacted by international organisations in their attempts to formalise the informal economy in Kosovo The second area of practice concerns the everyday informal economic practices of social agents in Kosovo To study these areas of practice at their junction Danielsson uses Pierre Bourdieu s concept of symbolic power and argues that in post conflict Kosovo the distinct practices have become interwoven and co constitutive of a novel ordering and meaning of informality The resilience of the informal thus plays out through while undermining and reinforcing the need of the international anti informality operations Including scholarship from global governance global political economy and social theory this book s original perspective on informal economies and power will appeal to scholars and professionals located in peace studies development studies and the field of international relations
