Soviet Politics in Perspective is a new edition of Richard Sakwas successful textbook Soviet Politics an introduction Thoroughly revised and updated it builds on the previous editions comprehensive and accessible exploration of the Soviet system from its rise in 1919 to its collapse in 1991 The book is divided into five parts which focus on key aspects of Soviet politics They are historical perspectives beginning with the Tsarist regime on the eve of Revolution the rise and development of Stalinism through to the decline of the regime under Brezhnev and his successors and Gorbachev s attempts to revive the system institutions of Government such as the Communist Party security apparatus the military the justice system local government and participation theoretical approaches to Soviet politics including class and gender politics the role of ideology and the shift from dissent to pluralism key policy areas the command economy and reform nationality politics and foreign and defence policy an evaluation of Soviet rule and reasons for its collapse Providing key texts and bibliographies this book offers the complete history and politics of the Soviet period in a single volume It will be indispensable to students of Soviet and post Soviet politics as well as the interested general reader Conflict and Decision-Making in Soviet Russia Sidney I. Ploss,2015-12-08 This discussion of agricultural policy in the decade after Stalin shows how decisions are made and then enforced Originally published in 1965 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905 The Soviet Political System Richard Cornell,1970 ICSSR Journal of Abstracts and Reviews Indian Council of Social Science Research,1982 Soviet Decisionmaking for National Security Jiri Valenta,William C. Potter,2021-01-26 This book first published in 1984 analyses the critically important Cold War issue of the Soviet national security decision making process dealing with weapons acquisition arms control and the application of military force It conceptualises Soviet decision making for national security from Stalinist antecedents to 1980s modes and examines the problems of decision making concerning weapons development defence research and development and SALT negotiations It also focuses on the decision making processes which led to the use or threatened use of military force in Czechoslovakia 1968 the Middle East 1973 and Afghanistan 1979 Interest Groups in Soviet Politics Harold Gordon Skilling,Franklyn Griffiths,2019-03-12 It is now generally agreed that since Stalin s death there has been a definite broadening of group participation in policy formation and implementation The contributors to this volume analyze seven elite political interest groups at the upper and middle levels of the Soviet social structure Originally published in 1971 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905 The Adversary System in Low-level Soviet Economic Decisionmaking David Apgar, Rand Corporation, 1984 This note examines decisionmaking in Soviet industry through a case study of three branches of Soviet machinery production data processing equipment agricultural machine building and chemical petrochemical equipment of a decisionmaking system characterized by low level conflict without clearly defined or predictable forms of conflict resolution The study aims to cast a new light on relations between clients and suppliers in Soviet industry and on the environment in which decisions on the importation of foreign technology are made in the hope of better predicting Soviet economic behavior Author Politics and the Soviet Union Mary McAuley, 1977 An introductory analysis of the political system in the USSR USSR, Analytical Survey of Literature United States.
