Collaborative Decision Making: Perspectives and Challenges P. Zaraté,J.P. Belaud,G. Camilleri,2008-06-13 Presents the innovations and achievements of academic communities on Decision Support Systems DSS This book intends to improve ways of synthesizing and applying relevant work from resource disciplines to practical implementation of systems that enhance decision support capability

Computer-Supported Collaborative Decision-Making Florin Gheorghe Filip,Constantin-Bălă Zamfirescu,Cristian Ciurea,2016-10-27 This is a book about how management and control decisions are made by persons who collaborate and possibly use the support of an information system The decision is the result of human conscious activities aiming at choosing a course of action for attaining a certain objective or a set of objectives The act of collaboration implies that several entities who work together and share responsibilities to jointly plan implement and evaluate a program of activities to achieve the common goals The book is intended to present a balanced view of the domain to include both well established concepts and a selection of new results in the domains of methods and key technologies It is meant to answer several questions such as a How are evolving the business models towards the ever more collaborative schemes b What is the role of the decision maker in the new context c What are the basic attributes and trends in the domain of decision supporting information systems d Which are the basic methods to aggregate the individual preferences e What is the impact of modern information and communication technologies on the design and usage of decision support systems for groups of people

Author Cocitation Analysis: Quantitative Methods for Mapping the Intellectual Structure of an Academic

Discipline Eom, Sean B.,2008-11-30 Provides a blueprint for researchers to follow in a wide variety of investigations Introduces an alternative approach to conducting author cocitation analysis ACA without relying on commercial citation databases

Decision Support David Schuff,David Paradice,Frada Burstein,Daniel J. Power,Ramesh Sharda,2010-11-25 This volume of Annals of Information Systems will acknowledge the twentieth anniversary of the founding of the International Society for Decision Support Systems ISDSS by documenting some of the current best practices in teaching and research and envisioning the next twenty years in the decision support systems field The volume is intended to complement existing DSS literature by offering an outlet for thoughts and research particularly suited to the theme of describing the next twenty years in the area of decision support Several subthemes are planned for the volume One subtheme draws on the assessments of internationally known DSS researchers to evaluate where the field has been and what has been accomplished A second subtheme of the volume will be describing the current best practices of DSS research and teaching efforts A third subtheme will be an assessment by top DSS scholars on where the DSS discipline needs to focus in the future The tone of this volume is one of enthusiasm for the potential contributions to come in the area of DSS contributions that must incorporate an understanding of what has been accomplished in the past build on the best practices of today and be be integrated into future decision making practices The primary questions raised by this volume are What will information systems based decision support entail in twenty years What research is needed to realize the envisioned future of information systems based decision support How will the teaching of information systems based decision support change over the next twenty years What are the best practices of teaching in the decision support area that can be leveraged to best disseminate DSS knowledge advances to students and practitioners

Author Co-citation Analysis Using Custom Bibliographic Databases Sean B. Eom,2003 This book introduces an alternative approach to conducting author co citation analysis ACA without relying on commercial citation databases such as index ISI citation index based on custom bibliographic database and co citation matrix generation systems specifically developed to use the custom database authors of cited references The inability to access non primary authors is a critical shortcoming of ACA research utilizing the commercial databases provides explicit instructions to build bibliographic databases process them to compile co citation matrix prepare SAS input files and interpret the results It provides a useful instructional guideline to conduct research regardless of the bibliographic databases used in house databases or commercial citation databases
