Declaration of Conscience Margaret Chase Smith, 1972 Politics of Conscience Patricia Ward Wallace, 1995-09-26

Margaret Chase Smith was the most influential woman in the history of American politics Her goal was to be a United States senator not a woman senator and she succeeded by overcoming gender not by championing it Smith began her political career as Maine's daughter and demonstrated nationally the New England virtues of honesty hard work frugality and reticence She became America's heroine when she courageously confronted Senator Joe McCarthy at the height of his power with her Declaration of Conscience speech In her statement she championed the American right to criticize to hold unpopular beliefs and to practice free speech Associating herself with the politics of conscience Smith won three more terms in the Senate and sat on the powerful Armed Services Appropriations Space Government Operations and Intelligence committees Altogether she was in Congress 32 years and by the time her career ended she had established an enduring prototype for female and minority politicians This biography of Margaret Chase Smith is the first historical treatment of Smith to use her voluminous private papers as well as extensive interviews with Smith and her colleagues in Congress As Maine's daughter Smith was frugal hard working reticent and caustic At age thirty two she married in scandal state politician Clyde Smith with whom she had been involved since she was sixteen and who was twenty one years her senior Smith came to Washington when Clyde was elected to Congress and against his wishes she became his secretary When Clyde died in office in 1940 Smith played the widow's game and successfully ran for his seat In the House during World War II Smith sat on the powerful Naval Affairs Committee and tutored by committee counsel Bill Lewis developed a national constituency the military which in turn allowed her to better serve Maine's interests Lewis directed Smith's first Senate campaign in 1948 when she won an upset victory by an astonishing margin Overnight she became the darling of the Republican party the heroine of women everywhere and the only woman in the United States Senate Immediately she became embroiled with Joseph McCarthy and courageously confronted him with her Declaration of Conscience speech four years before a Senate majority censored him Associating herself with politics of conscience Smith was elected to three more terms and sat on the powerful Armed services Appropriations Space Government Operations and Intelligence committees America's heroine was a political icon by the time she was defeated in 1972 at the age of seventy four A Declaration of Conscience Margaret Chase Smith, 1950
