Deconstructing Art:

Deconstructing Art Kam Wen Siu, 2025-07-05 Modern aesthetics is in as much a quagmire as modern art is Since the nineteenth century there has been no serious attempt at defining beauty while the great many of theorists focus their attention on a concocted concept that is foreign and unnatural to say the least the aesthetic Art theory on the other hand failed utterly in its fundamental task when it handed the artist and the so called artworld a carte blanche in the form of the institutional theory of art to decide by themselves what art is and is not This study attempts to fill both niches thus left gaping The study is the practical application of a method that we have first gleaned in On Names Ideas and Super Ideas The method requires that we treat the idea or concept of art as a mental mish mash that has resulted from an atypical messy process of abstraction and recognize the fact that the meaning of the word art can not be encompassed by a single definition The only way to define art is to break down this mental mishmash into component ideas that would have resulted from the process of abstraction had it been typical and provide a definition for each of such component ideas The work is divided into five parts Parts I and II provide an objective definition of art Part III provides an objective definition of beauty Part IV provides guidelines for judging or appreciating any work of art And Part V provides a rather personal interpretation of what went on in the arts during the twentieth century

Deconstructing Contemporary Chinese Art Paul Gladston, 2015-08-21 The book presents a range of articles and discussions that offer critical insights into the development of contemporary Chinese art both within China and internationally It brings together selected writings both published and unpublished by Paul Gladston one of the foremost international scholars on contemporary Chinese art The articles are based on extensive first hand research much of which was carried out during an extended residence in China between 2005 and 2010 In contrast to many other writers on contemporary Chinese art Gladston analyses his subject with specific reference to the concerns of critical theory In his writings he consistently argues for a polylogic multi voiced approach to research and analysis grounded in painstaking attention to local regional and international conditions of artistic production reception and display and the archive providing you with a firm grasp of his ideas 8 Equip you to critically evaluate and debunk the woke ideology that seeks to dominate our culture If you want to arm yourself against leftist brainwashing and protect your intellectual freedom then buy Deconstructing Derrida A Guide for Rational Men today Deconstruction and the Work of Art Martta Heikkilä, 2021-07-29 The contemporary idea of the work of art is paradoxically both widely used and often unexamined Therefore we must re evaluate the concept before we can understand what the deconstruction of aesthetics means for thinkers like Jacques Derrida Jean Luc Nancy and Philippe Lacoue Labarthe By examining their analyses of works of visual art and contextualizing their thinking on the matter Martta Heikkil asserts that the implications of the work of art art and the aesthetic apply not only to philosophical questions but also to a broader area Instead of the totality represented by the historical concept of Art poststructuralist thinkers introduce the idea of the radical multiplicity of art and its works From this notion arises the fundamental issue in Derrida and the poststructuralist tradition how can we speak philosophically of art which always exists as singular instances as works In Deconstruction and the Work of Art Visual Arts and Their Critique in Contemporary French Thought Heikkil shows that the deconstructionist notions of art are still influential in the discourses of contemporary art in which artworks proliferate and the concept of work is open ended and expanding This book offers an introduction to the deconstructionist theory of art and brings new perspectives to the complex undecidable relation between philosophy and art Deconstruction and the Visual Arts Peter Brunette, 1994 Representing some of the most innovative thinking in the various arts disciplines these contributions offer important challenges to existing disciplinary orthodoxies

Pun(k) Deconstruction jan jagodzinski,2018-12-07 In Postmodern Dilemmas Outrageous Essays in Art Art Education and Pun k Deconstruction Experifigural Writings in Art Art Education jan jagodzinski presents a series of essays covering a timespan of approximately ten years These essays chart the theory and practice of art art education as it relates to issues of postmodernity and poststructuralism concerning representation identity politics consumerism postmodern architecture ecology phallocentrism of the artistic canon pluriculturalism media and technology and AIDS As a former editor of The Journal of Social Theory in Art Education and a founding member for the Caucus on Social Theory in Art Education the author attempts to deconstruct the current art education paradigm which is largely based on modernist tenets and to reorient art education practice to social issues as developed in both media education and cultural studies Part of the intent in these two volumes is to undertake a sustained critique of the 1982 Art in the Mainstream A I M statement which continues to be considered as the core value for art education The distinct intention of this critique is to put forward a new value base for art art education in these postmodern times Many of the essays raise the need to be attentive to sex gender issues in art art education and the need to read the artistic discourse otherwise There is a sustained critique of the art programs developed by the Getty Center for the Arts whose arts curriculum presents the paradigm case of late modernist thinking Some essays are written in a provocative form that tries to accommodate such content This is particularly the case in Pun k Deconstruction where architectural discourse is deconstructed and which includes an artistic performance given by the author in 1987 This singular set of volumes combines scholarship in the areas of gender studies aesthetics art history art education poststructuralism and cultural studies in a unique blend of theory and practice for rethinking the field of art education

Inter-Medial Observations on the 'Reflected' Or 'Deconstructed' Illusion Bjoern Schubert,2011-07 Essay from the year 2009 in the subject American Studies Comparative Literature grade 1 0 Humboldt University of Berlin Amerikanistik und Anglistik course Postmodern Cinema language English abstract In this self study journal I aim to collect some comparative and inter medial ideas on how illusion here defined as different perspectives on reality in the arts is reflected within the media of film painting and literature The perception of reality especially in the medium of film remains up to the present moment a controversial and still largely unexplored topic in the fields of philosophy neuroscience and film theory therefore the intent of this self study journal is to focus on a small selection of examples of modern and postmodern film literature and the visual arts photography and painting As well I will explore a few selected quotations from manifestos in the tradition of early 20th century avant garde and also will make brief reference to earlier periods When we accept the reality that is shown to us in the movies we are giving ourselves over to the illusion of cinema that is being created by talented cast and crew in the production and carefully honed in post production by skillful editing The power of the illusion in cinema is to take us for the time being into another world and ideally we forget for the moment that we are still sitting in a dark room with a large screen In the medium of literature our imagination takes control of the world presented by the author's words and is translated into a uniquely imagined reality that is created by the reader's own imagination and recollection of memories Like in the cinema if a book grabs us we tend to forget our presence in the real world for the time reading the book
