Artificial Intelligence and Pattern Recognition in Computer Aided Design Jean-Claude Latombe,1978 Dating Apps, Modern Romance, and Social Inequality Hannah Regan,2025-12-11 How do we fall in love in the 21st century In Dating Apps Modern Romance and Social Inequality Hannah Regan explores the impact dating apps have had on how we meet potential partners and decide who to date In particular Regan considers our tendency to fall in love with people who are very similar to us and how dating apps both facilitate this preference and challenge us to think outside the box By sharing the stories of dating app users the book raises important questions about how social inequality exists in our intimate lives and how technology reinforces these long held social beliefs This book situates current patterns of dating and relationships within the historical context of courtship to explore how the introduction of new technology has changed romantic partnerships Despite these new possibilities the analysis encourages us to question whether dating is in fact changing or whether we are simply enacting the same old social patterns in new ways Challenging the assumptions which shape dating preferences in turn challenges the social structures of power and inequality which underlie them Transcript of the Proceedings United States. National Mediation Board,1950 PC AL ,1995 U.S. News & World Report ,1964 Data Ethics Ellen B. Mandinach,2025-12-11 Data Ethics How Educators Can Use Data Effectively and Responsibly describes the concept of data ethics which has become an increasingly important topic in education practice in part due to the proliferation of diverse data sources and the growing complexity of students It is important for educators to know how to use data both effectively and appropriately Educators are often faced with accountability pressures that may cause them to make decisions that are sometime problematic This book describes what data ethics are and how new technologies especially those based on artificial intelligence can challenge the appropriate use of data It provides authentic scenarios that university instructors professional development providers in service trainers and individuals can use to help educators better understand data ethics The Directory of U.S. Trademarks ,1993 Cumulative Title Index to United States Public Documents, 1789-1976 Daniel W.
