Disruption and Digital Journalism John V. Pavlik, 2021-10-06 This book offers a timely insight into how the news media have adapted to the digital transformation of public communication infrastructure Providing a conceptual roadmap to understanding the disruptive innovative impact of digital networked journalism in the 21st century the author critically examines how and to what extent news media around the world have engaged in digital adaptation Making use of data from news media content production and distribution both off and online as well as user and financial data from the U S and internationally the book traces how the news media embraced and reacted to key developments such as the invention of the World Wide Web in 1989 and the launch of Google in 1998 Facebook in 2004 and the Apple iPhone in 2009 The author also highlights innovative organizations that have sought to reimagine news media that are optimized for digital online and mobile media of the 21st century demonstrating how these groups have been able to stay better engaged with the public Disruption and Digital Journalism is recommended reading for all academics and scholars with an interest in media digital journalism studies and technological innovation

Rethinking the North American Long Poem Ridvan Askin, Julius Greve, 2024-12-15 For centuries critics poets poet scholars and philosophers have either openly proclaimed or tacitly assumed the long poem as the highest expression of literary ambition and excellence Rethinking the North American Long Poem focuses on the North American variant of this notorious form notorious because of its often forbidding and difficult character particularly with respect to the dialectics of content and form aesthetics and politics matter and genre In nine essays and a contextual introduction the editors and contributors scrutinize seminal long poems by North American writers including Walt Whitman s Song of Myself Ezra Pound s The Cantos Muriel Rukeyser s The Book of the Dead and Charles Olson s The Maximus Poems They also explore recent efforts that have redefined or reopened the case of the long poem including Rachel Blau DuPlessis s Drafts M NourbeSe Philip s Zong and Claudia Rankine s Citizen Taking the categories of form matter and experiment as frames of conceptual reference the book examines the ways in which material and immaterial aspects of literary practice and the philosophically and politically inscribed duality of experience and experiment are negotiated in and by North American long poems from the nineteenth century to the present
