technologies Instead the handbook demonstrates how the humanities and social sciences are essential to the design and governance of sustainable sociotechnical systems Methodologically the handbook is underpinned by a pedagogical approach to staging co learning and co creation of automated futures with rather than simply for people In this way the handbook encourages readers to explore new and alternative modes of research fostering a deeper engagement with the evolving landscape of automation

Genius Makers Cade Metz, 2021-03-16 This colorful page turner puts artificial intelligence into a human perspective Through the lives of Geoff Hinton and other major players Metz explains this transformative technology and makes the quest thrilling Walter Isaacson author of The Code Breaker Recipient of starred reviews in both Kirkus and Library Journal THE UNTOLD TECH STORY OF OUR TIME What does it mean to be smart To be human What do we really want from life and the intelligence we have or might create With deep and exclusive reporting across hundreds of interviews New York Times Silicon Valley journalist Cade Metz brings you into the rooms where these questions are being answered Where an extraordinarily powerful new artificial intelligence has been built into our biggest companies our social discourse and our daily lives with few of us even noticing Long dismissed as a technology of the distant future artificial intelligence was a project consigned to the fringes of the scientific community Then two researchers changed everything One was a sixty four year old computer science professor who didn't drive and didn't fly because he could no longer sit down but still made his way across North America for the moment that would define a new age of technology The other was a thirty six year old neuroscientist and chess prodigy who laid claim to being the greatest game player of all time before vowing to build a machine that could do anything the human brain could do They took two very different paths to that lofty goal and they disagreed on how quickly it would arrive But both were soon drawn into the heart of the tech industry Their ideas drove a new kind of arms race spanning Google Microsoft Facebook and OpenAI a new lab founded by Silicon Valley kingpin Elon Musk But some believed that China would beat them all to the finish line Genius Makers dramatically presents the fierce conflict among national interests shareholder value the pursuit of scientific knowledge and the very human concerns about privacy security bias and prejudice Like a great Victorian novel this world of eccentric brilliant often unimaginably yet suddenly wealthy characters draws you into the most profound moral questions we can ask And like a great mystery it presents the story and facts that lead to a core vital question How far will we let it go

How to Lose the Information War Nina Jankowicz, 2020-06-11 Since the start of the Trump era the United States and the Western world has finally begun to wake up to the threat of online warfare and the attacks from Russia who flood social media with disinformation and circulate false and misleading information to fuel fake narratives and make the case for illegal warfare The question no one seems to be able to answer is what can the West do about it Central and Eastern European states including Ukraine and Poland however have been aware of the threat for years Nina Jankowicz has advised these governments on the front lines of the information war The lessons she learnt from that fight and from her attempts to get US congress to act make for essential reading How to Lose the Information War takes the reader on a journey through five Western governments responses to Russian information warfare tactics all of which have failed She journeys into the campaigns the Russian operatives run and shows how we can better understand the motivations behind these attacks and how to beat them Above all this book shows what is at stake the future of civil discourse and democracy and the value of truth itself How to Start a Faceless
