Quiet Your Mind: A Men's Guide Jett Stone, PhD, 2024-10-08 It's time to take control of your overthinking and discover a more peaceful and focused mind. Overthinking creates unproductive repetitive thoughts often leading to anxiety, stress, and depression. Combined with social norms dictating that men stay strong and silent in the face of their internal struggles, overthinking can have other consequences for men as well, including irritability, aggression, impulsivity, and risk-taking behaviors. In this guidebook, author Jett Stone, PhD, a seasoned clinical psychologist and organizational consultant with years of experience working with men, offers practical, actionable strategies to help you take back your life from the cycle of overthinking and break free from unhelpful mental loops and cycles of rumination. Filled with valuable insights and practical skills that you can apply immediately, this book will help you learn to identify and challenge negative thought patterns, cultivate a positive mindset, and develop self-confidence. Inside this book, you'll discover proven techniques to quiet your mind and stop overthinking in its tracks, strategies to manage stress and anxiety, allowing you to live a more balanced and fulfilling life, skills to help you stay focused, present, and mindful during stressful situations, tips for building resilience and fostering positive thinking, practical ways to stop agonizing over the past and worrying about the future, real-life examples of common scenarios with tips on how to work your way through them without being caught in an overthinking loop. Whether you're facing work-related stress, relationship challenges, or daily decision paralysis, or you simply want to improve your mental well-being, this game-changing guidebook is your roadmap to mastering your mind and leveling up your life. Qualitative Research Methods for Media Studies Bonnie S. Brennen, 2025-01-20 This fully updated fourth edition provides students and researchers with the tools they need to perform critically engaged, theoretically informed research using methods that include interviewing, focus groups, historical research, oral histories, textual analysis, ethnography, and participant observation and digital ethnography and netnography. Each chapter features step-by-step instructions that integrate theory with practice, as well as a case study drawn from published research demonstrating best practices for media scholars. Readers will also find in-depth discussions of the challenges and ethical issues that may confront researchers using a qualitative approach. With new case studies and examples throughout, this fourth edition also includes updated and expanded material on performing data analysis, how to analyze and understand research findings, performing social media research, and the use of big data and Artificial Intelligence (AI). This includes a brand new chapter on generative AI, which examines recent advancements and technological developments and considers ways qualitative researchers can use it for their research. A comprehensive and accessible guide for those hoping to explore this rich vein of research methodology, this book provides students and scholars with all the tools they need to be able to work with in today's convergent media environment. Every Monument Will Fall Dan Hicks, 2025-05-01 An extraordinary intervention. If you want to understand the stakes and the limitations of contemporary conflict over culture and colonial history, this bold, provocative book is an indispensable resource. Paul Gilroy founding Director of the Sarah Parker Remond Centre for the Study of Race and Racism at UCL Hicks must read book describes how it was possible for a human skull to be made into a drinking cup and used in a genteel Oxford college well into the 21st century as if empire were an eternal state of nature Read it to learn new ways to be anti racist abolitionist and to tell other stories than those commemorated by the monuments that surround us from statues to museums and the police Nicholas Mirzoeff author of White Sight Brave and clear sighted Hicks opens up an extraordinary conversation between the past and the present This is a book about falling statues but so much more It s about how we ve been lied to and how we can approach the past with honesty Hicks asks whether history and archaeology should be used to justify actions we know impinge on the rights of others or to understand ourselves better Alice Roberts bestselling author of Crypt Dan Hicks writes with grace and fierce focus about what we choose to remember and why in our patterns of thought our institutions and the built environment in which we live Eyal Weizman director of Forensic Architecture The culture war is over If you want it to be It wasn t even a culture war it was a war on culture A sustained attack Dan Hicks argues in the form of the weaponisation of civic museums public art and even universities and one that has a deeper history than you might think Tracing the origins of contemporary conflicts over art heritage memory and colonialism Every Monument Will Fall joins the dots between the building of statues the founding of academic disciplines like archaeology and anthropology and the warehousing of stolen art and human skulls in museums including the one in which he is a curator Part history part biography part excavation the story runs from the Yorkshire wolds to the Crimean War from southern Ireland to the frontline of the American Civil War from the City of London to the University of Oxford revealing enduring legacies of militarism slavery racism and white supremacy hardwired into the heart of our cultural institutions Every Monument Will Fall offers an urgent reappraisal of how we think about culture and how to find hope remembrance and reconciliation in the fragments of an unfinished violent past Refusing to choose between pulling down every statue or living in a past that we can never change the book makes the case for allowing monuments to fall once in a while even those that are hard to see as monuments rebuilding a memory culture that is in step with our times Image Understanding and the Man-machine Interface II Eamon Barrett,James J.
