#21 Council on Business & Society, Welcome to Global Voice magazine 21 Out of the Tin Can This spring issue of the Council on Business Society s quarterly magazine contains 96 pages of research and opinion based articles featured in two sections Business Society and Leadership Management We re delighted to include a special double page dedicated to two new CoBS Deans Dean Lee Newman and Dean Yu Sakasume having respectively taken up their functions at leading member institutions

IE Business School Spain and Keio Business School Japan This issue s Editorial also features a spotlight on the unique value case studies bring to the learning experience co authored by Richard McCracken Director of The Case Centre the world s leading independent home of the case method and Prof Adrian Zicari of the Council on Business Society A wry and playful glance at business buzz words and maybe even the state of our hectic modern society is included in our double page cartoon penned by Tom Gamble of the CoBS and illustrated by Matthieu Anziani of ESSEC Business School And as usual hats off to the superb Global Voice graphic design by CoBS Head of Design M lissa Guillou Faculty practitioner and student articles provide the bread and butter of this issue with topics covering big data and customer value how to manage remote working designing mentorship programmes TechForGood greening up supply chains with circular economy strategy non financial social and environmental disclosure and a spotlight on smart cities in Japan among others And lastly you may ask why this issue carries the subtitle Out of the Tin Can The temptation is to say that it s up to you to interpret it for there are many interpretations possible Some of these might point to the David Bowie classic Space Oddity and the fact that at last many of us in our societies are once again able to step out of the confinement imposed by the pandemic to breath freely again Another interpretation hand in hand with the snappy front cover image might refer to Andy Warhol s iconic pop art consumerism or simply the tastiness of the contents the tin cans hold a little like the insights in this magazine if I dare say And lastly the shades of green to the cans give the message that our consuming society might well contain a new and more responsible sustainable taste to it In any case we hope you download this Global Voice 21 issue open it up and consume its insights with immoderation Enjoy your reading

Co-Design of Rehabilitation Programming Janelle Unger,James Middleton, John Bourke,Dalton L. Wolfe,2025-01-14 Co Design is an approach used in healthcare that integrates patient and care partner experiences into service and program development and delivery Co design involves both users and healthcare professionals or researchers working together to identify opportunities for improvement set goals evaluate progress and outcomes and reflect on processes Implementing a co design process improves person centered care and results in positive outcomes for both patients and staff Research in this area has increased significantly over the previous 15 years however much of this work has been focused on primary care It is important to focus on the use of co design in rehabilitation settings specifically due to the unique goals of these programs The goal of this Research Topic is to highlight the use of co design in rehabilitation programming and to value the knowledge and experience of those with lived experience who use rehabilitation services The insights gained will provide a foundation for future rehabilitation program development Federal Employees Almanac Federal Emergency Management Agency,2002-02 Workplace Changes Quinn Everett,Al,2025-03-19 Workplace Changes explores the fundamental shifts impacting today s work culture particularly concerning productivity job displacement and the rise of remote and hybrid work models It delves into how global events have accelerated these changes prompting a re evaluation of traditional business strategies and career planning One intriguing aspect examined is the initial boost in productivity observed during early remote work phases followed by a more nuanced analysis of sustained productivity factors The book also highlights the uneven impact of these workplace changes noting job losses in some sectors alongside the emergence of new opportunities offering a balanced perspective on the evolving landscape The book progresses by first defining key concepts then analyzing productivity trends and finally discussing long term implications for organizations and individuals It avoids simplistic narratives instead offering data driven insights and actionable strategies for adapting to the new world of work This career guide stands out by providing a balanced view acknowledging both the advantages and challenges inherent in remote and hybrid environments making it invaluable for business leaders HR professionals and anyone navigating career transitions in these dynamic times Federal
