Rethinking Your Content Mohit Rajhans,

We are having a content crisis Our attention isn t the same anymore and we the content people have to rethink our approach We ve spent over a decade feeding these massive companies with content and it s more important than ever to own your content footprint This book was written prior to the boom in AI and the Social Media Shift we are seeing anticipating the need for people to reclaim the content that they own without losing it to the digital abyss My goal with this book is to bring new life ideas and synergies to people who ve wanted to get back to understanding the value of content in their organization vertical or for their brand What soon became clear to me after March 2020 was that it will never be the content that we create that is actually king it will always be the connection Platforms trends channels apps services and groups will always evolve into many forms but your hard value will be your only factor that you can control I ve worked in content from beta tape to cloud AI Strategy from Big brands to local brands and the only thing I see consistently is a plea for a content strategy solution I ve struggled with the idea of content strategy for a while I find it to be an umbrella term for multiple inputs which leaves a lot of un accountability Content doesn t live and die on social platforms and in marketing campaigns it is often a purpose driven initiative that we ve lost sight of simply because we often don t take the time to evaluate what our multiple KPIs are It s time for the worlds of creators brand managers and producers to stop to consider where the real value is coming from Content doesn t live and die on social platforms and in marketing campaigns it is often a purpose driven initiative that we ve lost sight of simply because we often don t take the time to evaluate what our multiple KPIs are It s time for the worlds of creators brand managers and producers to stop to consider where the real value is coming from Let s start to Rethink this
