Fascism Craig A. Johnson, 2025-03-04 How to Talk to Your Son about Fascism is a practical guide for parents, carers, and others with young men in their lives on how to talk with those young men about fascism and the right wing which specifically and particularly preys on them for recruitment. Its central goal is to present research, history, and analysis about how and why the right wing recruits young men to parents, educators, and anyone with a young person in their lives. The book covers the history of right wing recruitment of young men, explaining why the right wing focuses on recruiting men both on a theoretical basis and through the logic of movement building, and then moves to practical analysis and suggestions for how to counter recruitment today. Recommendations come from excerpts and existing scholarship. Readers will come out of the book with a better understanding of what fascism is and how it works, how it preys on young men, how it recruits and appeals to them, and how to stop this from happening. This book will be of interest to antifascist researchers and activists as well as parents, carers, and the general reader concerned about the rise of the extreme right. Advice Service - HC 457 Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Treasury Committee, 2013-12-03 The Money Advice Service is not currently fit for purpose. The Committee considered whether to recommend that the MAS be scrapped completely, but given that the Treasury had already announced its intention to conduct a review of the MAS, they granted a stay of execution. They asked the Government to expedite this review and recommended that it should be independent rather than led by the Treasury. The review must assess whether the MAS should continue to exist and if so, how it can overcome the serious problems discussed. The current management of the MAS should also explain how they are going to act on the concerns identified The independent review should seek to answer the following questions Should the Money Advice Service or something like it exist as a statutory organisation If so what should the role and strategy of such a body be Should it be a co ordinator commissioner or direct provider of advice What channels should it use If not should the FCA take responsibility for the objectives of the Service Does the FCA need greater statutory powers to hold the Money Advice Service to account What are the views of other bodies in this sector about the way in which the Money Advice Service is now engaging with them To what extent does the work of the Money Advice Service unnecessarily duplicate existing provision What should the role of the Service be in each of the areas in which it operates Is the remuneration of the Service s senior staff set at an appropriate level
