

Verbal Abuse Coping Skills

- Verbal abuse does not happen because of some character flaw in you. The character flaw belongs to the abuser.
- Remember the abuser is not the authority on who you are as a person. You are distinct from how your abuser perceives you.
- You need to find ways to be assertive, even in the smallest ways. Small assertive actions will help you to build your confidence and find your voice.
- Avoid verbally abusive encounters if you can feel them coming. Find a reason to be busy until the mood subsides.
- Try not to engage in verbally abusive behavior as a rebuttal.
- Practice self-care. Do things you enjoy, even small things like watching your favorite film or reading.
