Coping With Infant Or Fetal Loss:

Coping with Infant Or Fetal Loss Kathleen R. Gilbert, Laura S. Smart, 1992 Coping with Infant Or Fetal Loss Kathleen R. Gilbert, Laura S. Smart, 1992 When Pregnancy Fails Susan Borg, Judith Lasker, 1981 Here is the first book to offer the genuine comfort and supportive advice so desperately needed at the time of infant loss Susan Borg and Judith Lasker who each suffered a failed pregnancy have combined their experience and interviews with doctors nurses clergy funeral directors and other bereaved parents to form this complete and helpful guide Empty Arms Sherokee Ilse, 1990 Coping with Miscarriage Stillbirth and Infant Death Hope is Like the Sun Lisa Church, 2004 Parent Grief Paul C. Rosenblatt, 2000 First Published in 2000 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Pastoral Care in Pregnancy Loss Thomas Moe, 2014-01-02 Until now the church has been unaware of the need for ministry to those suffering from pregnancy loss At a time when approximately one in four pregnancies ends in loss the need to understand and provide caring ministry is painfully obvious Pastoral Care in Pregnancy Loss introduces the religious community to the issue of pregnancy loss and describes the ministries that can be helpful to those who experience these tragedies Effective ministry in pregnancy loss requires that one develop basic life theories in order to prepare for such in depth care Thus the book is more than a how to as it explores why there is suffering and why some suffer more than others how to find grace when God seems far away how to minister when we don't have answers and how religious ministry can consistently work with other helping professionals in support of the individual With the foundation of ministry theory provided by Pastoral Care in Pregnancy Loss you can help your faith community develop strategies for ministry to those suffering from pregnancy loss Numerous case studies illustrate what is usually done wrong in providing pastoral care in these difficult and delicate situations and explain why those who experience loss may blame themselves why they may blame God and why they may not feel able to return to church Providing helpful insight to hospital pastoral care departments church libraries funeral directors counselors and psychologists nursing and obstetrics professionals and seminaries with a marriage and family ministry specialty this book provides readers with information about three types of pregnancy loss miscarriage still birth and neonatal loss church outreach the grieving process victims as consenters or experiencers the spiritual needs of those suffering loss practical ministries crisis support and long term support Pastoral Care in Pregnancy Loss furthers your understanding of pregnancy loss by enumerating theories on how suffering and loss are viewed by those suffering either as a time of testing a time of training a mystery of God a sign of punishment and warning or as having no meaning The book also shows how pregnancy loss affects five different types of personal relationships and discusses both immediate and long term concerns of providing pastoral care From helping the victim find meaning or reason for the loss to providing support in preparing for future pregnancies this book provides much needed guidance to an often neglected ministry Empty Arms Sherokee Ilse, 2008 Too Beautiful for Earth Ameerah Cooper, 2017-06-16 When a child loses his parent they are called an orphan When a spouse loses her or his partner they are called a widower When Parent loses their child there isn't a word to call them Every life no matter how old or how brief Forever changes the world I am a Mother of two beautiful angels named Amir Shakir and Aariah Faith Cooper Many of the feelings I experienced soon after my losses were expected sadness deep grief anger But what surprised me most and what I wasn't prepared for was the shame the overwhelming feeling that I had failed in the way that mattered most and that it could never be forgiven Mothers are supposed to take care of their babies and somehow I had not For five years I didn't have answers to why this happened to me During my second pregnancy I was diagnosed with incompetent cervix A condition most women have but are not aware until after they've suffered many loss especially second trimester and infant loss However there is strength and encouragement in the wisdom of others who have been there and found that God heals all broken hearts Too Beautiful for earth is the story of my journey the same journey that each mother who miscarries begrudgingly embarks on the excitement of pregnancy the overwhelming unfathomable devastation and loss the grotesque details that no one speaks of Giving birth to a child you never got a chance to take home is heart breaking and I want to share this beautiful novel which includes Memorials Scriptures Poems Motivation and support There Is Hope

Midwives Coping with Loss and Grief Doreen Kenworthy, Mavis Kirkham, 2011 The experience of stillbirth and other losses in pregnancy at what is usually a time of great joy is tragic for everyone involved including midwifery professionals Although research increasingly shows how profound the effects of loss can be few studies have explored the effects of pregnancy loss which often leads to other personal and professional traumas such as loss of autonomy or a workplace on midwives This in depth investigation uses a phenomenological approach to capture midwives experiences of loss and grief in their own words and encompasses both pregnancy loss and wider professional and personal issues It then makes recommendations to enhance midwives resilience and ability to cope appropriately whilst giving maximum support to their clients Reflections on the emerging implications for midwifery education and practice further broaden the scope of the analysis The insights in this book will be of great use to midwifery managers and supervisors They will also help midwives to nurture themselves their colleagues and their clients at a time when pressures on the service can leave support lacking The devastating experience of losing a baby for women and their families is something that as midwives we strive to understand in order to provide appropriate practical and emotional support Doreen and Mavis encourage us to consider how we are affected by the grief of others at a deeply personal level Ultimately the message in this book is one of hope through reflection and the sharing of experiences midwives who have been with women whose babies have died can regain their personal strength and learn to reshape memories in ways that contribute to personal growth and understanding A From the Foreword by Nicky Leap
