Mike Liu, 2025-05-31 The Future of Learning explores a world where human teachers and artificial intelligence no longer compete but collaborate. In this bold and timely book, educator and former diplomat Mike Liu draws from real classroom experience, case studies, and cross-cultural insight to examine how AI is reshaping the roles of educators, students, and institutions alike. From language learning and critical thinking to ethical concerns and co-teaching models, Liu highlights not only the challenges of AI in education but also its enormous potential. This is not a book about replacing teachers; it's about reimagining them. Whether you're an educator, policymaker, student, or lifelong learner, The Future of Learning invites you to rethink what teaching can become in an AI-powered world. Keengwe, Jared, 2023-09-18 As generative Artificial Intelligence (AI) tools become increasingly prevalent, it is crucial for educators to develop a nuanced understanding of the ethical implications associated with their use. Educators today face the critical task of navigating the pedagogical applications of AI and maximizing its potential to foster student learning. Creative AI Tools and Ethical Implications in Teaching and Learning is an insightful exploration of the ethical considerations surrounding the integration of AI in education. Educators may fear how it will rapidly transform the educational landscape, but this book serves to support them and delves into the opportunities and challenges that arise when leveraging AI to enhance teaching and learning experiences. Creative AI Tools and Ethical Implications in Teaching and Learning goes beyond theory to offer practical strategies for integrating AI creatively into the classroom. From learning analytics and educational data mining to AI game activities and generative AI tools like ChatGPT, this book equips educators with the knowledge and resources to adapt AI technologies to support teaching and learning effectively. Moreover, the book explores the vital connection between AI and student assessment, highlighting how AI can enhance the evaluation process while maintaining fairness and objectivity. It concludes with an insightful glimpse into the future of AI in education, envisioning the transformative possibilities that lie ahead. This comprehensive guide provides educators, researchers, and policymakers with the tools they need to navigate the complexities of AI in education. Chatgpt and Other Generative AI Tools

Jochen Kuhn, Stefan Küchemann, Knut Neumann, Martina Rau, 2025-02-17 In the past ten years, applications of generative artificial intelligence (GAI) have found rapidly growing use in medicine, science, and daily life. Large language models (LLMs) opened up new avenues, in particular for education. LLMs have been used to create interactive educational content for students, stimulate their curiosity, generate code explanations, and develop assessment questions. Additionally, LLMs have been applied for language practice, anxiety alleviation, and feedback provision. In higher education, LLMs have shown potential for assisting in medical exam preparation and clinical decision making. In school education, LLMs can help teachers with automated evaluation of student responses and respective adaptive feedback. More recently, LLM-based applications such as ChatGPT have been used to generate teaching materials or assessment tasks across different subjects. The field's understanding of the effects of the use of LLM-based applications in classroom teaching, however, is still in its infancy. GAI tools may help solving a range of tasks in education in particular with respect to teachers and students and teachers efforts to generate content However it is critical that teachers and students do not overly rely on GAI generated solutions but instead critically assess each solution Students should furthermore not use GAI tools to avoid investing relevant mental effort to create mental models or more broadly build up competencies Technology and Innovation in Learning, Teaching and Education Arsénio
