Coping With Divorce Single Parenting And Remarriage A Risk And Resiliency Perspective:

Coping With Divorce, Single Parenting, and Remarriage E. Mavis Hetherington, 2014-04-08 In this volume leading researchers offer an interesting and accessible overview of what we now know about risk and protective factors for family functioning and child adjustment in different kinds of families They explore interactions among individual familial and extrafamilial risk and protective factors in an attempt to explain the great diversity in parents and children's responses to different kinds of experiences associated with marriage divorce life in a single parent household and remarriage

Resilience and Vulnerability Suniya S. Luthar, 2003-05-05 Integrated in this book are contributions from leading scientists who have each studied children's adjustment across risks common in contemporary society Chapters in the first half of the book focus on risks emanating from the family chapters in the second half focus on risks stemming from the wider community All contributors have explicitly addressed a common set of core themes including the criteria they used to judge resilience within particular risk settings the major factors that predict resilience in these settings the limits to resilience vulnerabilities coexisting with manifest success and directions for interventions In the concluding chapter the editor integrates evidence presented through all preceding chapters to distill a substantive considerations for future research and b salient directions for interventions and social policies based on accumulated research knowledge

Handbook of Parenting: Being and becoming a parent Marc H. Bornstein, 2002 Despite the fact that most people become parents and everyone who has ever lived has had parents parenting remains a mystifying subject about which almost everyone has opinions but about which few people agree Striking permutations on the theme of parenting are emerging single parenthood blended families lesbian and gay parents and teen versus fifties first time moms and dads Divided into four volumes the Handbook of Parenting is concerned with different types of parents basic characteristics of parenting forces that shape parenting problems faced by parents and the practical sides of parenting Contributors have worked in different ways toward understanding all of these diverse aspects of parenting and look to the most recent research and thinking in the field to shed light on many topics every parent has wondered about Because development is too subtle dynamic and intricate to admit that parental caregiving alone determines the course and outcome of ontogeny

Robert M. Milardo, National Council on Family Relations, 2001 Diversity and Development Dana Comstock, 2005 This edited counseling specific text provides graduate students with needed information on human growth and development It provides a brief overview of developmental theories all of which are a review to students from their undergraduate work At its heart the book based on Relational Cultural theory addresses various topics and critical contexts as they relate to human growth and development and stresses relational development critical thinking and the central theme of how shame plays into development Taking Sides Richard P. Halgin, 2007 From McGraw Hill Contemporary Learning Series formerly known as McGraw Hill Dushkin this fourth edition of TAKING SIDES ABNORMAL PSYCHOLOGY presents current controversial issues in a debate style format designed to stimulate student interest and develop critical thinking skills Each issue is thoughtfully framed with an issue summary an issue introduction and a postscript An instructor's manual with testing material is available for each volume USING TAKING SIDES IN THE CLASSROOM is also an excellent instructor resource with practical suggestions on incorporating this effective approach in the classroom Each TAKING SIDES reader features an annotated listing of selected World Wide Web sites and is supported by our student website www.mhcls.com online

Mother/co-caregiver Relationships and Young Children's Adaptation in Never-married African American Families Nancy Ellen Cohen, 2000 Social Work Now, 2003 Child, Family, School, Community Roberta Berns, 2004 The best selling text in this area Child Family School Community deftly explores all the contexts in which children develop socially with sensitivity professional insight and current research Berns text describes and analyzes how a child's reciprocal interactions with family school peer groups media and community influences his or her developmental outcomes Further it takes a comprehensive look at the effects of family child care school peer group media community and societal factors including culture political ideology economics technology on the socialization of the child Truly ideal for undergraduate students and anyone who works with children Child Family School Community underscores the immeasurable value in preparing the child with the ability to adapt to a changing world Marital Intimacy and Family Subsystems Alysia Y. Blandon, 2005 Children, Families & Communities Jennifer M. Bowes, 2004 Children Families and Communities investigates how children families and communities influence each other It focuses on how a child's development is influenced by personal characteristics including disability ethnicity and gender as well as contexts such as family neighbourhood school and state policies Back cover Fathering and Adolescent Outcomes Among European American and Mexican American Stepfather and Intact Families Marie Alison Miller, 2007 Evolutionary Psychology and Motivation Jeffrey A. French, Alan C. Kamil, Daniel W. Leger, Martin Daly, 2001 Recent media coverage of the controversial theory of sexual violence as a product of biological evolution has once again brought the question of the origins of human motivation into the public eye In this volume leading scholars in behavioral studies examine the value of evolutionary perspectives in understanding psychological motivations Beginning with the fundamental fact that humans are part of the biological world evolutionary psychologists contend that human motivations and mental processes should be understood as by products of natural selection By viewing human psychology both normal and abnormal within this framework evolutionary psychologists intend to bridge the disciplinary divide between traditional psychology and fields such as biology
