Coping Maladaptation In Prisons:

Coping, Maladaptation in Prisons Hans Toch, Kenneth Adams, James Douglas Grant, 1989 Coping, Behavior, and Adaptation in Prison Inmates Edward Zamble, Frank J. Porporino, 2013-11-11 This book is the report of a collaborative effort Frank Porporino and I arrived at the starting point for our work together by very different routes Originally trained as an experimental psychologist I had become increasingly restive within the confines of the laboratory and spent a sabbatical year in the equivalent of a clinical internship I then spent some time as a part time consultant in a local penitentiary Most of my time in the institution was spent with inmates with a variety of problems probably about 50 individuals over the course of a year Although this was far fewer than a full time psychologist in the system might encounter it served as a quick cram course on problem prisoners and prisoner problems Very quickly my stereotypes about convicts were shown to be virtually useless I learned that the criminal classes included all levels of society and that the behavior of prisoners was the same as that of other human beings in a difficult environment Encyclopedia of Criminological Theory Francis T. Cullen, Pamela Wilcox, 2009-12-15 This two volume set is designed to serve as a reference source for anyone interested in the roots of contemporary criminological theory Drawing together a team of international scholars it examines the global landscape of all the key theories and the theorists behind them presenting them in a context needed to understand their strengths and weaknesses The work provides essays on cutting edge research as well as concise to the point definitions of key concepts ideas schools and figures Topics include contexts and concepts in criminological theory the social construction of crime policy implications of theory diversity and intercultural contexts conflict theory rational choice theories conservative criminology feminist theory and more Key Themes The Classical School of Criminology The Positivist School of Criminology Early American Theories of Crime Biological and Biosocial Theories of Crime Psychological Theories of Crime The Chicago School of Criminology Cultural and Learning Theories of Crime Anomie and Strain Theories of Crime and Deviance Control Theories of Crime Labeling and Interactionist Theories of Crime Theories of the Criminal Sanction Conflict Radical and Critical Theories of Crime Feminist and Gender Specific Theories of Crime Choice and Opportunity Theories of Crime Macro Level Community Theories of Crime Life Course and Developmental Theories of Crime Integrated Theories of Crime Theories of White Collar and Corporate Crime Contemporary Gang Theories Theories of Prison Behavior and Insurgency Theories of Fear and Concern About Crime The SAGE Encyclopedia of Criminal Psychology Robert D.
