The Writer's Handbook J. Paul Dyson, The 2015 edition of firstwriter.com's bestselling directory for writers provides details of over 1 200 literary agents, book publishers and magazines including revised and updated listings from the 2014 edition and over 380 brand new entries. Tips and advice are provided by top literary agent Andrew Lownie of the Andrew Lownie Literary Agency Ltd, named by Publishers Marketplace as the top selling agent worldwide. Subject indexes for each area provide easy access to the markets you need with specific lists for everything from romance publishers to poetry magazines to literary agents interested in thrillers. International markets become more accessible than ever with listings that cover both the main publishing centres of New York and London as well as markets in other English speaking countries. With more and more agents, publishers and magazines accepting submissions by email, this international outlook is now more important than ever. There are no adverts, no advertorials and no obscure listings padding out hundreds of pages. By including only what's important to writers, contact details for literary agents, publishers and magazines, this directory is able to provide more listings than its competitors at a substantially lower price. The book also allows you to create a subscription to the firstwriter.com website for free until 2016. This means you can get free access to the firstwriter.com website where you can find even more listings and also benefit from other features such as advanced searches, daily email updates, feedback from users about the markets featured, saved searches, competitions, listings searchable, personal notes and more. I know firsthand how lonely and dispiriting trying to find an agent and publisher can be. So it's great to find a resource like firstwriter.com that provides contacts, advice and encouragement to aspiring writers. I've been recommending it for years now. Robin Wade, literary agent at the Wade Doherty Literary Agency Ltd and long term firstwriter.com subscriber.

The Open Handbook Ann Raimes, Maria Jerskey, 2007 This mid-sized reference combines in-depth coverage of good writing, research and grammar skills with an abundance of exercises all at an affordable price. Written in the accessible style that made Keys for Writers a success, this engaging text addresses such current topics as ESL learning, visual literacy and writing beyond college, encouraging students to keep this handbook open. Four-color coverage of visual rhetoric and document design, unique in this market, sets this handbook apart. Students learn how to visually convey ideas through a variety of media such as tables, web sites and PowerPoint slides. In addition, they benefit from Raimes' signature differences: not deficits, coverage of multilingual perspectives. Two four-color chapters on document design and visual literacy feature examples of web sites, PowerPoint slides, academic essay design and tables and charts along with coverage of visual rhetoric such as using visuals to make an argument. The author's popular language transfer guides, more practical than ever, focus on multilingual transfer errors. A practical, context-based discussion of plagiarism appears in Chapters 37 and 40 and includes key strategies for avoiding different types of plagiarism. Distinctive Language and Culture boxes examine cross-cultural and multicultural aspects of writing. Chapter 8, a full chapter on style, includes the exceptional and memorable 5 C's of Style: cut, check, for action, connect, commit and choose the right words, unique to the Raimes handbooks. The grammar section focuses on common errors students make; the author's tone is clear, direct and coaching. Exercises based on diverse and engaging readings allow students to practice new writing skills. Coverage of writing across the curriculum, at work and in the community, appears in Part Nine, Writing Throughout College And Beyond. This section addresses a full spectrum of writing needs including writing online in many contexts, writing in the disciplines, writing in the community and writing reactive, summary and personal statements.
